

Your NHS

Your Education

Your Public Services

Your Pension

Together, we can save them!

Chester

strike | march | rally

30 Nov 2011

PENSIONS JUSTICE

Up to 3 million workers are expected to take strike action on 30 November in the largest co-ordinated action ever seen in the UK.

Mass demonstrations across the UK will see workers joined by community groups, students, pensioners, the unemployed and many more, sending a clear message to the government...

Fair pensions for all

As part of this, the TUC are coordinating a march and rally in Chester

... "We will not pay for your crisis!"

Wednesday 30 November

1. Support your local picket line
2. Join the march through Chester:

12 noon - Assemble at Castle Drive (opposite University of Chester's Riverside Campus) to march through Chester

1pm - The march will be at the Chester Cross for the TUC's 'Make Noise at One' then will march to the Guildhall for the rally. If you are unable to march the whole route please congregate at the Cross from 12.30pm.

Rally at the Guildhall, Watergate Street, Chester from 1pm

For more information please email cheshirewestagainstthecuts@live.co.uk or call Sam on 07590 689352